

ADFSD Hall of Fame Inductee and Dedication Ceremony

Who: Colonel Thomas R. Cross (Designer of Rigger Wings)

What: ADFSD Hall of Fame Inductee and Dedication Ceremony

Where: Lewi Auditorium ADFSD BLDG 6025, 710 Adams Avenue, Fort Lee, Va. 23805

When: 25 February 2019 @ 1300

Why: COL Cross's most notable contribution is being the recognized for his creation of the Parachute Rigger Badge. During his assignment as the 11th Division Parachute Maintenance Officer which he held from 1948 to 1950, he designed the Parachute Riggers Wings for the 11th Airborne Division which was officially adopted for the US Army on 13 June 1986. The parachute rigger badge is the only special skill badge approved for a Quartermaster specific Military Occupation Specialty (MOS COL Cross retired 01 February 1971 and will be the 67th Quartermaster Parachute Rigger Hall of Fame inductee.

We will also hang the official plaques of 6 other previous inductees:

CSM Mary L. Brown (59th)

CSM Tonika E Scott-Morris (60th)

CSM Danny Richards (61st)

CW5 Leonas (Leo) Venckus (62nd)

CW5 Gabino Seda (63rd)

SGM Dale Marks (64th)

Please RSVP to :

Senior Training Developer/Deputy Chief Senior AD Systems Technician

Aerial Delivery and Field Services Department

Email: usarmy.lee.tradoc.list.lee-at-sm-adsd-qmcs-adsd-mgr1@mail.mil

(O) 804-734-4794 DSN: 687

(C) 804-605-8114