

2020 Quartermaster Corps Honors Events

The United States Army Quartermaster School will celebrate the Corps' Pride, Lineage and Esprit de Corps during a series of Honors events from 6 thru 8 May 2020 during Sustainment Week activities here at Fort Lee, Virginia.

On Thursday, May 7th, Brigadier General Douglas M. McBride, the 55th Quartermaster General and Commandant of the United States Army Quartermaster School will officiate a rededication ceremony of the 244th Quartermaster Battalion Dining Facility in honor of Chief Warrant Officer Four Ernest H. Sexton. Next, he will dedicate the 262nd Quartermaster Battalion Field in honor of Major General Eugene L. Stillions, Jr. Following that ceremony, a Quartermaster Honors Reception will be held at the Aerial Delivery and Field Services Department.

On Friday, May 8th, BG McBride will officiate the dedication ceremony of the 23rd Quartermaster Brigade Headquarters building in honor of Colonel Gregory S. Townsend. Following that ceremony, BG McBride will recognize Distinguished Members and Units of the Corps at the Fort Lee Club. Following lunch, the Hall of Fame Ceremony will be held in the main ballroom, where BG McBride will induct the newest members into the Quartermaster Hall of Fame, appoint Lieutenant General Ray Mason, Retired as the Tenth Honorary Colonel of the Corps and appoint Sergeant Major Joseph P. Brundy, Retired as the Ninth Honorary Sergeant Major of the Corps. The culminating honors event will be announcement of the 23rd recipient of the Ancient Order of Saint Martin. We transition from the Lee Club to the Quartermaster Museum where BG McBride will unveil the "Wall of Honors", officially revealing the new home for all Quartermaster Honors Inductees.

We hope you will make plans to join us for our Quartermaster Corps Honors and Sustainment Week events at Fort Lee, Virginia...the Home of the Quartermaster Corps.

“Ready on Day One”

”Supporting Victory”!
